Levanto, Italy
(elevation 3 meters, population 5,788)

This secluded coastal town just north of the Cinque Terre boasts a large sandy beach (rare in Liguria) yet is unspoiled by tourism. Steeped in history as a free commune prior to 1229, the ancient church of Sant' Andrea and the clock tower from 1265 make a wonderful morning tour. Try the small family-run Hotel Nazionale near the Mediterranean and taste the excellent reds and whites from the surrounding hill vineyards.
