Monterosso al Mare, Italy
(elevation 12 meters, population 1,643)

Increasingly popular amongst vacationers, this is really two villages. The old village is classic Cinque Terre with its fishing boats, colorful houses and fine beach while the new village, Fegina, is an elegant seaside resort with the four-star "Porto Roca" hotel and a harbor for 57 boats. Besides the quaintness, sun and seafood, the village also boasts some important museums and architecture. Stop for a wonderful lunch overlooking the Mediterranean at the "Ristorante La Tortuga", built right into the seaside cliffs.
