Portofino, Italy
(elevation 3 meters, population 574)

Only 7 kilometers from Rapallo on the Golfo del Tigullio, this little bay, with its narrow, pastel houses and 253 berth harbor, featured in many films, is uniquely world famous. Dating back to Roman times, the village boasts many 12th and 14th century churches and the medieval fortress Castello di San Giorgio on the promontory. The local shops and Ligurian cuisine like the "Puny" restaurant (pesto and fish specialties) are wonderful but crowded in season. The four-star "Piccolo" and "Splendido" hotels overlook the Mediterranean.
