San Remo, Italy

(elevation 15 meters, population 56,129)

The artist Claude Monet and the "Festival della Canzone" have made this west Ligurian town famous as the town of flowers and song, but the 465 berth harbor, the world championship car rally and the shops, casino, local cuisine and the old town history attract the wealthy today. Surrounded by hill villages dating to ancient times, a drive in the countryside is a trip back in time. Four and five star hotels include the "Royal", the "Evaline Porto Sole", the "Miramare", and the "Nazionale". For fine dining try these hotels or ristorante "Giannino" or "Paolo e Barbara".
